

Alive to the World's purpose is life education for our children. This falls under many acronyms which seem to change about every two years, currently Citizenship and RSE (Relationships and Sex Education). The focus is on the child learning their place in the world, respect for all, a right understanding of all kinds of relationships and a true understanding of their developing bodies and sexuality.

The charity produces secular materials and curriculum that are consistent with the religious attitudes towards sexuality of Christianity and of all the world's major religions, with interest being shown by many of them. It promotes heterosexual marriage and families while allowing for and teaching about alternatives. It describes all the options based on up-to-date scientific data that includes, among other things, effects on physical and psychological health of hormonal drugs. It is well balanced and well grounded in both medicine and the wider sciences.

Their work also involves training of educators, parents, religious and other community groups/leaders. Their training materials give full background and references. They also lobby to have their curriculum courses and materials (firstly) permitted and (secondly) adopted.

Your generous donation is very gratefully received. If you are a United Kingdom taxpayer, we ask that you Gift Aid it so we can reclaim the tax you paid on it, increasing its size by 25%, so we can achieve that much more with it.
